TEACHER GUIDE

How to Use This Deck

A teacher's reference for facilitating scenario discussions

PAGE LAYOUT

Each page contains two scenario cards for a single lesson. The page is designed to be cut in half and laminated for reuse.

COLOR CODING

Cards are color-coded by unit — Navy for Unit 1, Teal for Unit 2, Plum for Unit 3, Forest for Unit 4.

DURABILITY

Laminating the cards allows reuse across multiple class periods and school years.

CARD CONTENT

Each card contains The Situation (read aloud or displayed) and Discussion Questions (teacher-facilitated).

AGE APPROPRIATE

Scenario cards are adapted for K-2 vocabulary and developmental level.

DRAWING EXAMPLES

Drawing Examples follow the scenario cards — one per lesson. Print and post as a teacher reference.

EXPLICIT GUIDANCE

All Drawing Examples include explicit step-by-step instructions and a teacher note.

UNIT 01

Knowing & Accepting Yourself

Identity, Feelings, Mistakes, and the Inside Voice

AUGUST • SEPTEMBER • OCTOBER

Before children can extend grace to others, they must first understand who they are, that their feelings carry meaning, and that mistakes are not who they are. These ten cards build the foundational vocabulary of self-knowledge.

Who Am I?

CUT VERTICALLY • LAMINATE • REUSE

SCENARIO • 1-A

Who Am I?

THE SITUATION

Mia drew a picture of her family and her dog on her Identity Web. A boy in her class said, "That's a baby thing to draw." Mia felt embarrassed.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- ▶ Is Mia's family part of who she really is?
- ▶ Why might someone say a mean thing about your drawing?
- ▶ What would you say to Mia to help her feel proud?

SCENARIO • 1-B

Who Am I?

THE SITUATION

Jaylen couldn't think of anything to write on his Identity Web. He kept thinking, "I'm not good at anything."

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- ▶ Do you think Jaylen really isn't good at anything?
- ▶ What might Jaylen's friends say he is good at?
- ▶ Name ONE thing you noticed about Jaylen this week.
